The INDEED International Policy & Practitioners' Forum

The 2-Day International Forum brings together practitioners, policy makers, and experts from across Europe and internationally in a front-of-field highly practical event featuring leading experts addressing key innovations, lessons, challenges, practical application, case studies and recommendations for improving evidence-based evaluation, policy and practice in P/CVE, De-Radicalisation and Crime Prevention.1

Organized online, the Forum will be the largest event of its kind to-date, bringing together leading international experts, practitioners, law enforcement agencies and civil society organizations, representatives of local and national governments across the EU and internationally, the European Commission, the United Nations, universities, research institutes and think tanks, and donors, with a special focus on learning from practice and identifying practical recommendations to improve the use of evidence-based evaluation and evidence-based policy making and practice in the field.

The Forum will include key-note presentations, highly informative and participatory workshops, communities of practice sessions, policy forums, networking events and more.

Participants will be able to choose the exact sessions of most interest to them, and to take part in all or only parts of the Forum.
